

Opening a restaurant in LBI

Using Yelp data to inform decision

Opening a restaurant in LBI

Goal: Open a restaurant in the Long Beach Island region of the Jersey Shore

The analysis conducted in this exercise was aimed at addressing the following questions:

- Where specifically should I open the restaurant in the LBI area?
- What kind of restaurant should I open?

Summary of analysis

Yelp data was reviewed for existing restaurants (200) in the LBI region:

- 67 on the mainland (1)
- 65 on the northern part of the island (2)
- 68 on the southern part of the island 3)

Based on the analysis conducted in this exercise, there is an opportunity to open a sushi restaurant in the mainland region west of Long Beach Island or on the southern part of the island.

Restaurants analyzed

200

Key criteria analyzed including:

- Ratings
- Number of reviews
- Locations
- Restaurant categories

Categories considered

70

1. Seafood
2. Breakfast & Brunch
3. Sandwiches
4. American (Traditional)
5. Pizza
6. American (New)
7. Italian
8. Delis
9. Mexican
10. Burgers

Deeper dive into the results

- Filtered out categories with less than 5 restaurants in the LBI region (and only considered remaining 23 categories)
- Analyzed average rating versus average review count for each restaurant category
- Selected categories with high ratings and number of reviews to focus on for new restaurant

Deeper dive into the results

- Looked at comparison of top restaurants (>3.5 rating) across the three areas of LBI
- Broke down counts of restaurants by category

Takeaway: There are no good sushi or burger restaurants on the mainland and there are no sushi restaurants on the southern part of the island. This presents an opportunity for a new venture.

Potential future analysis

#1 -

Determine whether to open a sushi restaurant on the mainland or southern part of the island - or a burger restaurant on the mainland.

#2 -

Explore potential for hybrid grocery-store bar idea.
